Roberta

Sister lovesong,
letting go to heal

Camden

Gave permission to finally be me.

Christine

A armor; gift and curse;
hopeful courage

1. Who are you? What brings you to this conversation?
2. What has the experience of renewal meant to you? What does it look like, feel like, sound like? Tell a story that illustrates renewal alive for you.
3. What has the absence of renewal felt like? What does that absence look like, feel like, sound like? Tell a story that illustrates the absence of renewal for you.
4. How you hold our essential question, “How might I renew myself as an educator?”
5. How did the fellowship and SCRR helped that holding and feeling?
6. What is your vision for what renewal and sustaining the self this coming school year might look like?

"Before the Fellowship, I thought renewal was more about restoring to normal/original state. Now I feel it more about acknowledging, grieving, and celebrating a new normal."

SCRR 2023-24 FELLOW REFLECTION

"Before the Fellowship, I thought renewal was more about restoring to normal/original state. Now I feel it more about acknowledging, grieving, and celebrating a new normal."

SCRR 2023-24 FELLOW REFLECTION

"Before the Fellowship I felt renewal was rooted in recharging. Now, I feel it is about rewriting, reworking, unraveling to create anew."
